Our Tiny-Tots Song

572 – Give of Your best to the Master

Praise The Lord

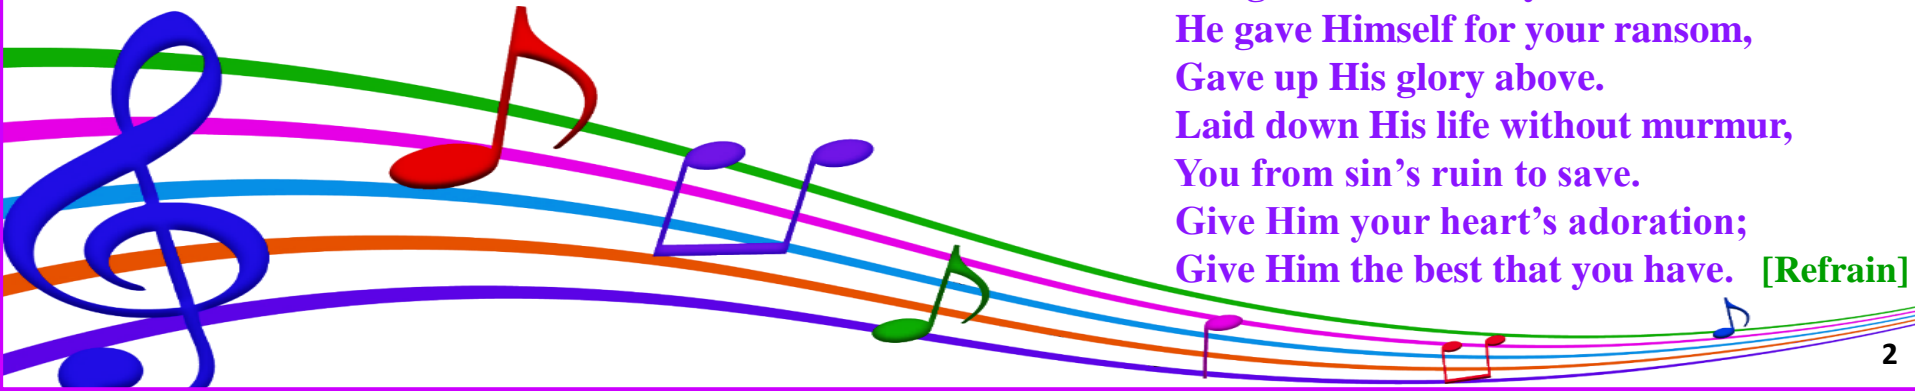

Sing A Joyful Song

1). Give of your best to the Master;
Give of the strength of your youth.
Throw your soul's fresh, glowing ardor
Into the battle for truth.
Jesus has set the example,
Dauntless was He, young and brave.
Give Him your loyal devotion;
Give Him the best that you have.

Refrain: Give of your best to the Master;
Give of the strength of your youth.
Clad in salvation's full armor,
Join in the battle for truth.

2). Give of your best to the Master;
Give Him first place in your heart.
Give Him first place in your service;
Consecrate every part.
Give, and to you will be given;
God His beloved Son gave.
Gratefully seeking to serve Him,
Give Him the best that you have. [Refrain]

3). Give of your best to the Master;
Naught else is worthy His love.
He gave Himself for your ransom,
Gave up His glory above.
Laid down His life without murmur,
You from sin's ruin to save.
Give Him your heart's adoration;
Give Him the best that you have. [Refrain]

*Opening Prayer-

A woman with dark hair and a yellow headband, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt and a purple skirt, is reading a yellow book titled "THE STORY of JESUS!". She is pointing upwards with her right hand. In the background, two children, a girl and a boy, are sitting on a large purple flower. They are both holding their hands to their ears, as if listening intently. The scene is set in a garden with many purple and white flowers, green leaves, and butterflies. The background is a light blue sky with white clouds. The entire scene is framed by a decorative border of flowers and leaves.

This section of our study was inspired by the Lord for all His precious little jewels.
Our book selection is entitled,
“The Story of Jesus”
Chapter 18 – Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin, Part 4

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verse for our lessons are taken from the book of:

Matthew 26:64 (KJV)

Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Matthew 26:65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

Matthew 26:66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

Chapter 18 – “Before Annas, Caiaphas, and the Sanhedrin” Part 4

Continuing: In this statement the Saviour presented the reverse of the scene then taking place. He pointed forward to the time when He will occupy the position of supreme Judge of Heaven and earth. He will then be seated upon the Father's throne, and from His decisions there will be no appeal. {SJ 116.6}

He brought before His hearers a view of that day, when, instead of being surrounded and abused by a riotous mob, He will come in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory. Then He will be escorted by legions of angels.

Then He will pronounce sentence upon His enemies, among whom will be that same accusing throng. {SJ 116.7}

As Jesus spoke the words declaring Himself to be the Son of God, and Judge of the world, the high priest rent his robe, as if to show his horror.

He lifted his hands toward Heaven, and said: {SJ 117.1}

(Next Slide)

Continuing: “He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses?

Behold, now ye have heard His blasphemy. What think ye?” {SJ 117.2}

The judges answered, “He is guilty of death.” Matthew 26:65, 66. {SJ 117.3}

It was contrary to the Jewish law to try a prisoner by night.

Though the condemnation of Christ had been determined, there must be a formal trial by day. {SJ 117.4}

Jesus was taken to the guard room, and there suffered mockery and abuse from the soldiers and the rabble. {SJ 117.5}

At daybreak He was again brought before His judges, and the final sentence of condemnation was pronounced. {SJ 117.6}

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Joshua

Our Bible verses for our Lesson 5 in our topic “Mammals of the Bible” taken from:

2 – Teach Us to Pray

Luke Chapter 18 (KJV)

- 18:9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
- 18:10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
- 18:11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men [are], extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.
- 18:12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

Character Quality

Reverence vs Disrespectfulness

Reverence is respect and affection for
God and spiritual things.

Nature

A Mammal's Body Systems I

What are the internal systems of a mammal? They are the 1. Circulatory, 2. Digestive, 3. Nervous, and 4. Respiratory systems.

These systems are important to life and if one shuts down, the animal dies. If we do not pray, our spiritual life will die.

1. Circulatory System

The Circulatory System is made up of the heart and blood vessels. Mammals have a four-chambered heart, which pumps blood to all parts of the body. The blood carries food and oxygen to the body tissues. The blood of Christ brings strength to the Christian.

2. Digestive System

What is the Digestive System in mammals? The Digestive System takes nourishment from food to use in the body. It has a long tube that begins in the mouth, then goes down to the esophagus, the stomach, and the intestines. The Digestive System determines the kind of food a mammal eats. Mammals that eat flesh have a simple stomach and short intestines. God knew flesh food would putrefy if kept in the system very long and so that is the reason their intestines are shorter than the plant-eating mammals. Most mammals that eat plants have a more complicated stomach and long intestines. Cows and sheep have a four-chambered stomach. Each chamber aids in helping to break down grass that is eaten by the animal. After a cow has chewed and swallowed enough food, it goes to a quiet spot and “ruminates,” or chews the partially digested cud. This can remind us of how we need to mediate (think over) prayerfully and reverently what we have read in God’s Word.

Remind

1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
2. As you clean out your closet be reminded that there is a good, quiet place to talk with God in prayer.

Reinforce

1. Look for mammals! Use your guide book to identify them.
2. Find pictures of mammals eating to put on your bulletin board.
3. For individual activities, stories, and poems, use the booklet entitled, Children’s Bible Activities, Stories, and Poems, for this quarter.
4. Say your memory verse!

Remarkable Parent Food

“God does not regard all sins as of equal magnitude; there are degrees of guilt in His estimation, as well as in that of man; but however trifling this or that wrong act may seem in the eyes of men, no sin is small in the sight of God. Man’s judgment is partial, imperfect; but God estimates all things as they really are. The drunkard is despised and is told that his sin will exclude him from heaven; while pride, selfishness, and covetousness too often go unrebuked. But these are sins that are especially offensive to God; for they are contrary to the benevolence of His character, to that unselfish love which is the very atmosphere of the unfallen universe. He who falls into some of the grosser sins may feel a sense of his shame and poverty and his need of the grace of Christ; but pride feels no need, and so it closes the heart against Christ and the infinite blessings He came to give.”

“If the lilies of the field are objects upon which the great Master Artist has bestowed care, making them so beautiful that they out rival the glory of Solomon, the greatest king that ever wielded a scepter; if the grass of the field is made into a beautiful carpet for the earth, can we form any idea of the regard which God bestows upon man, who was formed in His image.

“The great Master Artist calls our attention to the soulless flowers of the field, pointing out the beautiful tints and the wonderful variety of shades one flower may possess. Thus God has revealed His skill and care. Thus He would show the great love He has for every human being.”

Cicada

“They’ve got bright red eyes, which pop against the forest palette. They’re also extremely, irritatingly noisy, making them easy to locate. Plus, they have no defense — no bite, no sting, no venom.”

“Cicadas are, in fact, spectacular bugs. Although they have tiny insect brains, they can count and sense temperature; males have built-in drums that make noises so loud they can damage human hearing; and in just a few short weeks they transform entire forest ecosystems.”

“So yes, while they may be obnoxiously loud and, to many people, extremely icky, periodical cicadas are an ecological wonder — and one that we arguably take for granted. It’s worth getting to know these bizarre bugs a bit better, starting with these eight incredible facts:”

EARTH'S MOON—"THE LESSER LIGHT"

THE MOON'S POSITIONS
AS IT REFLECTS THE SUN'S LIGHT!

The moon illustrates the law that tells us "it is by beholding that we become changed." (The Great Controversy 478)
Looking at God's law, we see what sin is. Looking at Calvary, we understand how much Jesus denied Himself to redeem us. Looking by faith to our High Priest in the sanctuary, we shall more and more come into harmony with His longing to perfect His people so that they reflect His image fully.

“Because He Lives”
#526*

1). God sent His Son, they called Him Jesus,
He came to love, heal, and forgive;
He lived and died to buy my pardon,
An empty grave is there to prove my Saviour lives. {Refrain}

2). How sweet to hold a newborn baby,
And feel the pride, and joy He gives;
But greater still the calm assurance,
This child can face uncertain days because He lives. {Refrain}

Because He lives I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future.
And life is worth the living just because He lives.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 of our lesson entitled, “In Joseph’s Tomb” in our study book
The Desire of Ages!*

Matthew 27:50 (KJV)

Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

John 19:38 (KJV)

And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave [him] leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

John 19:39 (KJV)

And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound [weight].

John 19:40 (KJV)

Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

John 19:41 (KJV)

Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

John 19:42 (KJV)

There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation [day]; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand

Continuing:

After the resurrection the priests and rulers circulated the report that Christ did not die upon the cross, that He merely fainted, and was afterward revived.

Another report affirmed that it was not a real body of flesh and bone, but the likeness of a body, that was laid in the tomb.

The action of the Roman soldiers disproves these falsehoods.

They broke not His legs, because He was already dead.

To satisfy the priests, they pierced His side. Had not life been already extinct, this wound would have caused instant death. {DA 772.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.772

But it was not the spear thrust, it was not the pain of the cross, that caused the death of Jesus.

That cry, uttered
“with a loud voice”

(Matthew 27:50; Luke 23:46),

at the moment of death, the stream of blood and water that flowed from His side, declared that He died of a broken heart.

His heart was broken by mental anguish.

He was slain by the sin of the world.

Jeremiah 31:3

With the death of Christ
the hopes of His disciples perished.
They looked upon His closed
eyelids and drooping head,
His hair matted with blood,
His pierced hands and feet,
and their anguish
was indescribable.
Until the last they had not believed that He would die;
they could hardly believe that He was really dead.

Continuing:
Overwhelmed with sorrow, they did not recall His words foretelling this very scene. Nothing that He had said now gave them comfort. They saw only the cross and its bleeding Victim.

The future seemed dark with despair. Their faith in Jesus had perished; but never had they loved their Lord as now. Never before had they so felt His worth, and their need of His presence. {DA 772.3}

Isaiah 49:16

Christ's body was

They could not leave and buried in a dishonored grave.

Yet they could not prevent it.
They could obtain no favors
from the Jewish authorities,
and they had no

{DA 772.4}

In this emergency, Joseph of Arimathaea and Nicodemus came to the help of the disciples. Both these men were members of the Sanhedrin, and were acquainted with Pilate. Both were men of wealth and influence. They were determined that the body of Jesus should have an honorable burial. {DA 773.1}

He hath showed thee,

but to do justly,
and to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with thy God?
Micah 6:8

Joseph went boldly to Pilate, and begged from him the body of Jesus. For the first time, Pilate learned that Jesus was really dead. Conflicting reports had reached him in regard to the events attending the crucifixion, but the knowledge of Christ's death had been purposely kept from him. {Next Slide Please}

Pilate had been warned by the priests and rulers against deception
by Christ's disciples
in regard to His body.

Upon hearing Joseph's request, he therefore sent for the centurion who had charge

He also drew from him an testimony of Joseph.

{DA 773.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.773

The request of Joseph was granted. While John was troubled about the burial of his Master, Joseph returned with Pilate's order for the body of Christ; and Nicodemus came bringing a costly mixture of myrrh and aloes, of about a hundred pounds' weight, for His embalming. The most honored in all Jerusalem could not have been shown more respect in death. The disciples were astonished to see these wealthy rulers as much interested as they themselves in the burial of their Lord. {DA 773.3}

Have a Blessed and Peaceful Sabbath!

Jeremiah 31:33 (KJV)

But this [shall be] the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

“The same law that was engraved upon the tables of stone is written by the Holy Spirit upon the tables of the heart. Instead of going about to establish our own righteousness we accept the righteousness of Christ.

His blood atones for our sins.

His obedience is accepted for us.

Then the heart renewed by the Holy Spirit will bring forth “the fruits of the Spirit.” Through the grace of Christ we shall live in obedience to the law of God written upon our hearts.”
