314 – Just as I am

Praise The Lord

Sing A Joyful Song

https://youtu.be/vwf_I0LpA00?si=DuUJgh6D5dqM2bWK

1. Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

2. Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3. Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt;
“Fightings within, and fears without,”
O Lamb of God, I come.

4. Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee I find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5. Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

6. Just as I am, Thy love I own
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be Thine, and Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Review

This section of our study was inspired by the Lord for all His precious little jewels.
Our book selection is entitled,
“The Story of Jesus”
Chapter 20 – Before Pilate
Part 3

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verse for our lessons are taken from the book of:

John 18:36 (KJV)

Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

John 18:37 (KJV)

Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

John 18:38 (KJV)

Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault [at all].

(Next Slide)

Chapter 20 – “Before Pilate” Part 3

Continuing: Pilate then asked, “Art Thou a king then?” {SJ 126.5}

Jesus answered, “Thou sayest that I am a king.

To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth My voice.” {SJ 126.6}

Pilate had a desire to know the truth. His mind was confused.

He eagerly grasped the words of the Saviour, and his heart was stirred with a great longing to know what the truth really was, and how he could obtain it.

He asked Jesus: “What is truth?” {SJ 126.7}

But he did not wait to receive an answer.

The tumult of the crowd outside the hall of justice had increased to a roar.

(Next Slide)

Continuing:

The priests were clamorous for immediate action, and Pilate was recalled to the interests of the hour. Going out to the people, he declared: “I find in Him no fault at all.” John 18:33-38. SJ 126.8}

These words from a heathen judge were a scathing rebuke to the base perfidy and falsehood of the rulers of Israel who were accusing the Saviour. {SJ 127.1}

As the priests and elders heard this from Pilate, their disappointment and rage knew no bounds. They had long plotted and waited for this opportunity.

As they saw the prospect of the release of Jesus, they seemed ready to tear Him in pieces. {SJ 127.2}

Next Sabbath we will continue with part 4 of our entitled, “Before Pilate” in our Tiny Tot’s Lesson book “The Story of Jesus” September 14, 2024.

Review

1. What did Pilate ask?
(Answer: “Art Thou a king then?”)
2. What was Pilate’s second question to Jesus?
(Answer: “What is truth?”)
3. What did Pilate declare to the people?
(Answer: “I find in Him no fault at all.”)

8 Benefits Of Pumpkin

1. Pumpkin is very rich in carotenoids, which is known for keeping the immune system of an individual strong and healthy.
2. Beta-carotene, found in pumpkin, is a powerful antioxidant as well as an anti-inflammatory agent.
3. It helps prevent build up of cholesterol on the arterial walls, thus reducing chances of strokes.
4. Being rich in alpha-carotene, pumpkin is believed to slow the process of aging and also prevent cataract formation.
5. Pumpkins have been known to reduce the risk of macular degeneration, a serious eye problem than usually results in blindness.
6. The high amount of fiber, present in a pumpkin, is good for the bowel health of an individual.
7. Being loaded with potassium, pumpkin is associated with lowering the risk of hypertension.
8. The presence of zinc in pumpkins boosts the immune system and also improves the bone density.

Nature Fruiting Vegetables

Fruiting vegetables are plants that flower and produce fruit with their seeds enclosed. Fruits of vegetable plants include cucumbers, eggplants, muskmelons and watermelons, okra, peppers, snap beans, summer and winter squash, and tomatoes.

“And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so” (Genesis 1:11).

A member of the large family, including squashes, pumpkins, and gourds, Blue Hubbard squash catches the eye with its color and size. It has a distinctive blue-gray or bluish-green skin. It's a type of winter squash and can be found from September to March in grocery stores and farmers' markets. Blue Hubbard squash's size ranges from 10 to 30 pounds or even larger.

Blue Hubbard squash grows in many places across the US and Canada. It's a nutritious vegetable and is a good source of nutrients, including vitamins A and C, dietary fibers, potassium, and antioxidants such as beta-carotene.

In contrast to the outer shell, the flesh of the Blue Hubbard squash is orange. Like the other squash family members, its inner texture is dense and sweet. The rich taste of Blue Hubbard squash makes it versatile in the kitchen. You can cook soups, casseroles, omelets, bake pies, and other pastries with it. This Blue Hubbard squash recipe gives you everything you need to know to turn this autumn specialty into a fulfilling stew.

Doe and Fawn

Many times, during a storm or trial, like a deer, we need to stand perfectly still and wait on the Lord as to what we should do.

The white-tailed deer's tail is like a flag of warning. What counsel does Isaiah 59:19 give to us?

A female deer carries her young inside of her for about six to nine months depending on the kind of deer. She finds a hidden place away from others of her kind to give birth. The mother deer is very protective of her newborn. Jeremiah, however, tells us about a drought that was so terrible that even “the hind...calved in the field, and forsook it (newborn calf), because there was no grass” (Jeremiah 14:5). This must have been quite an awful situation because deer do not naturally desert their young. The young will stay hidden for about four to five weeks or until they can walk well enough to keep up with mother. God gave fawns special protection against their enemies in their helpless condition.

We will continue to learn more about the doe in our Next lesson 4 of our topic “Mammals of the Bible” next Sabbath dear ones!

Vegetables are different from fruits. Fruits grow each year on trees and other woody plants that live more than two years. Scientists consider muskmelons and watermelons as vegetables because they grow on a vine and must be replanted each year. Vegetables can be put into several classes—one class is fruiting vegetables such as tomatoes, cucumbers, squash, and melons. Then there are root vegetables like carrots, beets, turnips, and radishes. Another class would be leafy vegetables like spinach, lettuce, and cabbage. There are even flowering vegetables such as cauliflower and broccoli. There will only be two classes of people when Jesus returns. These are the faithful and wise servants and the evil servants.

Chapter 52 – “The Divine Shepherd ” Part 4

Continuing: Through all our trials we have a never-failing Helper.

He does not leave us alone to struggle with temptation, to battle with evil, and be finally crushed with burdens and sorrow. Though now He is hidden from mortal sight, the ear of faith can hear His voice saying, Fear not; I am with you.

“I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive forevermore.” Revelation 1:18.

I have endured your sorrows, experienced your struggles, encountered your temptations.

I know your tears; I also have wept.

The griefs that lie too deep to be breathed into any human ear, I know.

Think not that you are desolate and forsaken. Though your pain touch no responsive chord in any heart on earth, look unto Me, and live. "The mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee." Isaiah 54:10. {DA 483.1}

However much a shepherd may love his sheep, he loves his sons and daughters more.

Jesus is not only our shepherd; He is our “everlasting Father.” And He says,

“I am the good shepherd, and know my [sheep], and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. John 10:14, 15

What a statement is this!--the only-begotten Son, He who is in the bosom of the Father, He whom God has declared to be “the Man that is My fellow” (Zechariah 13:7),--the communion between Him and the eternal God is taken to represent the communion between Christ and His children on the earth! {DA 483.2}

Continuing: Because we are the gift of His Father, and the reward of His work, Jesus loves us. He loves us as His children.

Reader, He loves you. Heaven itself can bestow nothing greater, nothing better.

Therefore trust. {DA 483.3}

Jesus thought upon the souls all over the earth who were misled by false shepherds.

Those whom He longed to gather as the sheep of His pasture were scattered among wolves, and He said, “And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, [and] one shepherd.”

John 10:16 {DA 483.4}

“Therefore doth My Father love Me, because I lay down My life, that I might take it again.” That is, My Father has so loved you, that He even loves Me more for giving My life to redeem you. In becoming your substitute and surety, by surrendering My life, by taking your liabilities, your transgressions, I am endeared to My Father. {DA 483.5}

“I lay down My life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again.”

While as a member of the human family He was mortal, as God He was the fountain of life for the world.

He could have withstood the advances of death, and refused to come under its dominion; but voluntarily He laid down His life, that He might bring life and immortality to light. He bore the sin of the world, endured its curse, yielded up His life as a sacrifice, that men might not eternally die. “Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. . . . He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.”

Isaiah 53:4-6. {DA 484.1}

Onward! 'tis our Lord's command; Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
- 2). Waft it on the rolling tide: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
Tell to sinners far and wide: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
Sing, ye islands of the sea; Echo back, ye ocean caves;
Earth shall keep her jubilee: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
- 3). Sing above the battle strife: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
By His death and endless life: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
Sing it softly through the gloom, When the heart for mercy craves;
Sing in triumph o'er the tomb: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
- 4). Give the winds a mighty voice: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
Let the nations now rejoice: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!
Shout salvation full and free, Highest hills and deepest caves;
This our song of victory: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!

Meanwhile the report of Christ's resurrection had been carried to Pilate. Though Pilate was responsible for having given Christ up to die, he had been comparatively unconcerned. While he had condemned the Saviour unwillingly, and with a feeling of pity, he had felt no real compunction until now. In terror he now shut himself within his house, determined to see no one. {Next Slide Please}

Continuing:

But the priests made their way into his presence, told the story which they had invented, and urged him to overlook the sentinels' neglect of duty.

Before consenting to this, he himself privately questioned the guard.

They, fearing for their own safety, dared not conceal anything, and Pilate drew from them an account of all that had taken place. He did not prosecute the matter further, but from that time there was no peace for him. {DA 782.3}

When Jesus was laid in the grave, Satan triumphed. He dared to hope that the Saviour would not take up His life again. He claimed the Lord's body, and set his guard about the tomb, seeking to hold Christ a prisoner. He was bitterly angry when his angels fled at the approach of the heavenly messenger. When he saw Christ come forth in triumph, he knew that his kingdom would have an end, and that he must finally die. {DA 782.4}

Continuing:

The priests, in putting Christ to death, had made themselves the tools of Satan.

Now they were entirely in his power.

They were entangled in a snare from which they saw no escape but in continuing their warfare against Christ.

When they heard the report of His resurrection, they feared the wrath of the people. They felt that their own lives were in danger.

{Next Slide Please}

Continuing:

The only hope for them was to prove Christ an impostor by denying that He had risen.

They bribed the soldiers, and secured Pilate's silence.

They spread their lying reports far and near.

But there were witnesses whom they could not silence.

Many had heard of the soldiers' testimony to Christ's resurrection.

And certain of the dead who came forth with Christ appeared to many,
{Next Slide Please}

Continuing: and declared that He had risen. Reports were brought to the priests of persons who had seen these risen ones, and heard their testimony. The priests and rulers were in continual dread, lest in walking the streets, or within the privacy of their own homes, they should come face to face with Christ. They felt that there was no safety for them. {Next Slide Please}

Bolts and bars were but poor protection against the Son of God.

By day and by night that awful scene in the judgment hall, when they had cried, “His blood be on us, and on our children,” was before them.

Matthew 27:25.

Nevermore would the memory of that scene fade from their minds. Nevermore would peaceful sleep come to their pillows. {DA 785.1}

There is no peace, said the LORD, to the wicked.

—Isaiah 48:22

Continuing:

When the voice of the mighty angel was heard at Christ's tomb, saying, Thy Father calls Thee, the Saviour came forth from the grave by the life that was in Himself.

Now was proved the truth of His words, "I lay down My life, that I might take it again. . . . I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again."

Now was fulfilled the prophecy He had spoken to the priests and rulers, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

John 10:17, 18; 2:19.

Lift Him Up

August 26

Entitled, "Love and Justice Harmonized"
(Pages 252. 1-5)

Our opening scripture taken from:

Psalm 85:10 (KJV)

Mercy and truth are met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed [each other].

Continuing with our quotes:

“God alone can lead you to so recognize His mercy, love, and forbearance that you will have the faith that works by love and purifies the soul. This is the gift of God. It is the opening of the heart to receive the word which is as the leaves of the tree of life. May God fill your heart with His love, so that it may be said that you . . . have purified your soul by obeying the truth. {LHU-Lift Him Up 252.2}

“Believing in Christ and receiving His transforming grace is not guesswork, but a work which causes Christ's virtues to be reflected in mind and character. When you gain this experience, you will say, "I have tasted and seen that the Lord is good. The Lord Jesus shall be my portion forever." The power of the cross will move in you the mysterious springs of hope and fear, adoration, and love.

{Continuing on the next slide}

Continuing with our quotes:

Angels are watching and waiting, and will witness to the fact that the world has you not. Jesus has found you sitting at His feet to learn from Him, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Henceforth, surrendering your will to the will of Christ, you are drawn into a region where the cross is the central object. The world fades from your view. The glory shining from the threshold of heaven is the all-attractive influence.

The riches of the grace of Christ hold you in willing obedience. . . . You are only too glad to impart to others the gift you have received.
{LHU-Lift Him Up 252.3}

“I long to see you improving the capabilities given you by God, so that you can respond to the inquiry, “What must I do to be saved?” Let the words fall from sanctified lips, “Be saved by accepting Christ by faith as your personal Saviour.”

{Continuing on the next slide}

Continuing with our quotes:

God is love. The sinner need not perish if he will exercise faith in the wonderful efficacy of the cross of Christ.. The cross is the stupendous expedient by which is harmonized the love and justice of God. It is the sinner's only means of salvation. . . The image of His love may be so stamped upon the mind that it can never be effaced. Then Jesus Christ will be so evidently set forth crucified before you that you will be a partaker of the dignity of His suffering. I have such an intense longing that you may look into the heart of this great mystery, and find that its interpretation is love. . . .

{LHU-Lift Him Up 252.4}

“As you make a full surrender of your will to God's will, your way to God's way, you will learn of Him who is meek and lowly in heart, and will find rest unto your soul. A calm confidence will preside over you. . . .

{Continuing on the next slide}

Continuing with our quotes:

You will experience more and more clearly the sense of an ever-present, all-pervading Saviour. This will give the soul power . . . which the changing circumstances of earth cannot undermine. It plants the feet upon a solid rock (letter 123, 1901).
LHU-Lift Him Up 252.5}

REFLECTIONS:
PROVERBS 2:3-5

No one can search the Scriptures in the spirit of Christ without being rewarded. When man is willing to be instructed as a little child, when he submits wholly to God, he will find the truth in His word.

If men would be obedient, they would understand the plan of God's government....Human beings would be altogether different from what they now are, for by exploring the mines of truth men would be ennobled.
{COL-Christ Object Lesson 114}

“Be Afraid of Self—

The apostle Paul could meet eloquence with eloquence, logic with logic; he could intelligently enter into all controversies. But was he satisfied with this worldly knowledge?

{Continuing on the next slide}

Continuing with our quotes:

He writes: “And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.” –

{6BC- Bible Commentary
Vol. 6 1083.10}

Here is a very important lesson. We need to understand our whereabouts. We need to understand that the highest education ever given to mortals develops a spirit of humility, for it reveals how much more there is yet to learn.

{6BC-Bible Commentary
Vol. 6 1083.11}

The more you learn, the more you will see the necessity of putting your whole mind and interest into learning for Christ's sake. Why are you learning? Are you acquiring knowledge so as to become intelligent in the truth? If that is your object, be assured that you will hide self in Jesus Christ.

SonLight Education Ministry
Homeschooling from the Bible

1).

Mary had a little lamb
Its fleece was white as snow;
And everywhere that Mary went,
The lamb was sure to go.

4).

And then he ran to her, and laid
His head upon her arm,
As if he said, “I’m not afraid;
You’ll keep me from all harm.”

2).

He followed her to school one day;
That was against the rule;
It made the children laugh and play
To see a lamb at school.

5).

“What makes the lamb love Mary so?”
The eager children cry.
“O, Mary loves the lamb, you know,”
The teacher did reply.

3).

And so the teacher turned him out,
But still he lingered near,
And waited patiently about
Till Mary did appear.

6).

And you each gentle animal
In confidence may bind
And make it follow at your will,
If you are only kind.

Psalms 34:1, 4, 6, 7 (KJV) Margin...

I will bless the LORD at all times: (2 x)

(I will his praise His Holy Name)

his praise [shall] continually [be] in my mouth. (At all times)

I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (2 x)

I will bless the LORD at all times: (2 x)

(I will his praise His Holy Name)

his praise [shall] continually [be] in my mouth. (At all times)

This poor man cried, and the LORD heard [him], (When he cried) and saved him out of all his troubles.

O taste and see that the LORD [is] good

I will bless the LORD at all times: (2 x)

his praise [shall] continually [be] in my mouth. (At all times)

O taste and see that the LORD [is] good:
blessed [is] the man [that] trusteth in him.

O taste and see,
the LORD [is] good!

Chapter 81

“The Lord Is Risen”

Part 4

September 14, 2024

Have a Blessed and Peaceful Sabbath!

1 Corinthians 15:57 (KJV)

But thanks [be] to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

This work can be accomplished only through faith in Christ,
by the power of the indwelling Spirit of God.
Paul admonishes believers: “Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.” Philippians 2:12, 13.

The Christian will feel the promptings of sin, but he will maintain a constant warfare against it.
Here is where Christ’s help is needed. Human weakness becomes united to divine strength, and faith exclaims: “Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”
